Fréjus is a pleasant seaside resort in the east of the Var, distinguished by its generous natural surroundings. Surrounded by two mountain ranges, the Maures to the west and the Estérel to the east, and bordered by the blue of the Mediterranean, Fréjus offers a pleasant living environment.

As part of the Var Estérel Méditerranée community, its 55,000 inhabitants benefit from quick access to motorways, making it easy to reach Cannes, Nice, Monaco and Italy on the one hand, and Aix-en-Provence, Marseille, Lyon and the north of France on the other. It is a privileged location that the city is taking full advantage of to develop its tourism and economy.

Designed to a high architectural standard, the new Célest residence consists of two buildings, each with a ground floor (R+3) and a ground floor (R+4) with lofts. The flats range from 2- to 4-rooms, with spacious living areas.

You will love the functional volumes and bright rooms. In both winter and summer, the flats benefit from the unique light from the south. The flats open onto terraces hidden from view by hedges, where the whole family can enjoy the mild Mediterranean climate.
