Located in the heart of the classified historic center of Saint-Maximin-la-Sainte-Baume, this charming village house has been fully renovated with high-quality materials. Offering a unique living environment, it features three spacious bedrooms, a large living area with a stone fireplace and insert, as well as a fully fitted and equipped kitchen. Perfect for those who appreciate authenticity, it also includes a library and an office, ideal for remote work. For added comfort, a bathroom and a shower room are available. Its workshop, with direct access to the pedestrian street, presents an excellent opportunity for a commercial activity. A garage, which can be converted into a business space, along with a cellar, complete the property. A true highlight, its private Tropezian terrace offers a peaceful outdoor space with no overlooking neighbors. Its old-world charm, with terracotta floors, Rognes stone, and exposed beams, will appeal to lovers of character properties. With its prime location and generous spaces, this house is a fantastic investment opportunity, whether as a primary residence, a business, or a seasonal rental. A rare find on the market!
